III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Really good! Enthusiastic + very good at integrating new concepts without being overwhelming.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

The classroom itself was kind of awkward — it would be better if it were easier to move around — but the interactivity was great + kept me invested.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

I particularly liked the non-book materials (better than the ones from the book.)

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Reasonable level/difficulty, although I think that other hw assignments were more useful than the ficher video.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

More info on ~~10~~ French-speaking cultures outside of France would be cool.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-Caroline always kept the class entertaining & engaging. Her casual style was suitable to all, and her kindness & enthusiasm for the subject were always evident.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Group activities sometimes felt overdone. However, it kept the class entertaining so we didn't have to hear lectures all the time. The inclusion of YouTube songs & videos was great & really livened up the class. Sometimes the mini-skits were too much.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

The materials ~~we received~~ prepared by Anne online (the vocab & grammar packets) were of superb quality! However, the textbook was not very helpful. While I liked the emphasis on learning comprehension through videos, the worksheets in the book were not always clear or helpful.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Tests were very fair, & appropriately emphasized writing composition. The oral presentation was fun. The oral examinations were graded quite toughly I felt. The iTunes activity took a while on the computer — a waste of time.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

I am so pleased w Anne-Caroline & with the level of French I have attained so quickly!

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching. The instructor was very friendly and open to comments. She tried to make class interesting and helpful. I just wish she could have focused more on explaining grammar.

2) Please comment on classroom activities. Most activities were effective, except for the audio video.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

I think there are more effective ways than the one we used. I feel I need more details about grammar and structural aspect of the language. The book was very helpful and I liked the vocabulary packets for each unit.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

The tests were fair. I wish we had more of the oral presentations. The group conversations were very effective.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

I grew to appreciate the textbook more as the semester progressed, but would benefit from more graded homework. It was sometimes easy to stop following along in the workbook when there were no consequences.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

- Is there any way to make learning vocabulary more of a priority? Weekly vocabulary quizzes might be a good idea.
- More reading - many students take French 100 to gain fluency in French as a scholarly language. It would be helpful to read more French → even if it's just links to French newspapers or blogs on the mycourses site.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

My instructor always appears highly energized and ready to teach, but I don't think she is a very experienced teacher. She needs to slow down her speech and do a better job of making sure the majority of the class comprehends what exactly is going on.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Most of the time, I feel like the classroom activities are very childish and not actually conducive to my practice of the great amount of material I am expected to have mastered by the exam date.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

The online (mycourses) calendar is pretty helpful in getting me prepared (at least expectation-wise) every day. In that sense, it is organized → because then class usually covers what the calendar said it would cover.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-Caroline was a very enthusiastic teacher, making it very easy to find the class enjoyable. For the most part, she was very clear about expectations and the material being taught. She was also very approachable and made sure students understood the material through activities and repetition.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Classroom activities that got students talking ~~and~~ were beneficial because it was an informal way to practice speaking without worrying too much about being criticized or graded while working on learning vocab. and pronunciation. Practicing conjugation in class was useful.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

The book was not very helpful, but doing the exercises in the cahier were useful for practice. The fiches videos were not very useful but it was good practice listening to dialogues. The class overall was well-organized.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

There were no real writing assignments and I think by the end of the semester we could have done one small one. Tests were fair and I always ~~felt~~ felt well-prepared. I think we should have done more oral recordings as practice for the oral exams. Conversation groups were useful.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

I like the professor a lot. She seems to be really enthusiastic about this ~~at~~ class all the time. She is very easily to be reached.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Classmates are nice and easy to work with.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

I think the work required is reasonable. But because I am learning this class through a second language, I consistently feel that this class is challenging for me. ~~But~~

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

I like the class a lot. I benefited a lot from the class.
