III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Generally not bad, but I feel like this course was more suitable for people who had already seen this material before in another French class. I would've struggled a lot more if the material was fairly new to me.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Largely interesting - class times didn't feel like it dragged on forever.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

the speed was appropriate, although class (I feel) should be more tied to the textbook

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Appropriate.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

I know the objective of the class is to conduct everything in French, but it would be nice if for some of the grammar lessons, there was a bit more reinforcement in English

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-Caroline is obviously fluent, so she was perfectly adequate and could answer any questions asked. That was very valuable.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

We do lots of group work - I would have preferred more grammar.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Materials - the book and workbook were unnecessary.
Organization - I liked the way we read plays and watched the movies of them.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Compositions were good, tests good, oral presentations not stressful, conversation groups happened too often.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

The placement test could use an oral section - I placed into this level but it was far too easy.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

She has a great heart, and she is fairly kind but I had an awful language department in high school and this class was only slightly better.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

Many times, classroom activities were engaging but not necessarily helpful, section was enormously beneficial though,

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

There was a good amount of work if you did it all but you could get by not doing much.
