III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

- 1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

She was very nice and a good teacher,
I hesitate to comment because I think most assignments were dictated by the head of the class.

- 2) Please comment on classroom activities.

I liked some and disliked others. Grammar exercises proved fairly tedious. Structured conversation was good. Movies were good.

- 3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

I was not completely a fan. The last section on secularism was terrible, not enough time
& the ~~the~~ assigned reading was completely impossible to understand. Absolutely no point trying to teach it when we could have read something less esoteric &

- 4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, ~~more~~ conversation groups, etc.).

Too much busy work, not enough substance.
The semester was poorly paced, way too much at the end of the semester.
Should have more spread out, not all due on same days. Pace it!

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-Caroline is lovely, and she always made sure that the class was engaged and our discussions engaging. She is so open to answer my incessant questions about French culture, which has enhanced the class (and learning!) experience for me.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

At times, I wanted to discuss literature more than sort where the Cyrano de Bergerac characters were sitting, but that was just once, and I'm generally quite content.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

I think it was quite diverse and relevant, from Cyrano to our own novels to the unit on la laïcité.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

The workload honestly is "just right" — never too overwhelming, but sufficient for me to feel like my French has improved.

I think I would have liked more opportunities to practice speaking. My reading and writing and comprehension have improved tremendously, but I'm rather shy when it comes to conversation.

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

Anne-Caroline makes beautiful cupcakes! ☺

Cwl, generous → (she makes copier a lot)

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

The class focused largely on discussion and writing. Presentations were mainly (limited to 10/15') with the professor.
Activities were varied, fun, educational, and contained a great amount of depth!

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

The class was very structured and organized.
There were no surprises as there was a calendar complete with day by assignments and what to complete before ~~and after~~ class & what would take place during class. ~~outside~~

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-caroline was very nice + helpful; I liked her a lot.
Often found her difficult to understand however - something about her accent.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

I really liked the free conversation sections moderated by people in the class. ☺

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Materials: I really liked Cyrano and the chance to read books of my choosing for the oral exams. I also like On connaît la chanson. I DID NOT like Ce que nous voile le voile - very hard to read and understand.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

Sometimes the amount of work can be very overwhelming, especially when it all falls on top of each other - like having presentations and examens and devoirs all in the same week. I think the assignments could have been paced better, though at the same time I understand that a language course at this level necessitates a lot of work.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

Anne-Caroline was a wonderful instructor - she was always very enthusiastic in class and offered kind and constructive criticism on how to improve our skills.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

We would often work in small groups on worksheets or discussions of readings, as well as have larger class discussion.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Materials gave a good, broad understanding of French culture, for we did units on songs, literature, and other aspects of French culture, though the unit on "la laïcité was a bit boring.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

2 in-class essays, 3 nw essays, 2 oral exams, 5-7 vocab quizzes, nightly readings / reading

5) Other comments or suggestions you would like to make.

III. PERSONAL COMMENTS: Please answer as many of the following questions as you would like.

1) Please comment on the instructor's teaching.

The instructor was generally fair, though there was the occasional sense of favoritism. Did well with encouraging class discussion & working in groups.

2) Please comment on classroom activities.

The activities did not always seem to connect well with work we were doing outside of class, especially when the work was challenging. EX/ reading an act of a play in preparation for class, but spending all of class discussing who the characters are, which was the most understandable part.

3) Please comment on materials and organization of the course.

Materials and organization was very good, canvas site was very helpful.

Linking of materials used out of class and in could have been better.

4) Please comment on the work required in this course (writing assignments, tests, oral presentations, conversation groups, etc.).

3 out of class essays

2 in class essays

2 orals (midterm final)

various other small assignments
